PENFIELD, N.Y., AUGUST 15, 2013 – The “Friends of the Penfield Library” (FPL) will host the group’s 37th Annual Used Book Sale September 10-14 at the Penfield Community Center, 1985 Baird Road.

More than 95,000 items will be for sale including books, videos, DVDs, CDs, vinyl records, games, puzzles, and software. Items are conveniently sorted by category.

“With their proceeds from the Book Sale, the Friends generously support programming for all ages here at the library,” said Bernadette Brinkman, Penfield Library Director. “The Friends also pay for enhancements to library service for the community beyond the provisions of our operating budget, such as an upgrade to our assistive listening device, so those with hearing challenges can enjoy programming in our Braman Room, and a device to clean and resurface our DVDs and Blu-Ray discs, so borrowers can rely on their playability.”

The sale begins with a members-only pre-sale on Tuesday, September 10 from 2:00 to 9:00 p.m. Supporters may join at the door, however because of crowds, the Friends recommend joining or renewing in advance of the sale at the Penfield Library. A one-year membership is $5.00 (the same low fee for many years).
The general public is welcome to attend the sale September 11-14. Hours and daily specials are as follows:
