Supervisor LaFountain called the meeting to order – Pledge of Allegiance

Public Hearing #1 To Consider a Conditional Use Permit to Allow the Conversion of a Pre-existing Non-Conforming Industrial building to a Climate Controlled Storage Facility at 1385 Empire Blvd

The Town Clerk read the title of the above Public Hearing; said Notice was published in the Penfield Post on July 27, 2017 and was posted on the Town Website and Town Clerk Bulletin Board. 5 postcards were mailed.

Linda Biekirch, owner of Empire Storage, 1385 Empire Blvd. would like to convert the 4,000 square foot storage building to a climate controlled storage unit. A portion of the building is used for industrial businesses and a portion is vacant. Ms. Biekirch stated they would like to modify the entire building in two (2) phases based on the wishes of existing tenants.

Councilwoman Metzler asked if they are looking to increase the footprint of the building.

Ms. Biekirch stated the size of the building will remain the same, but they plan to enhance the site. The exterior will be changed to match the existing mini warehouse buildings that Empire Storage has been building over the years.

Supervisor LaFountain stated a tremendous amount of cleanup has been done on site. He also stated that mini storage has been popular.

Supervisor LaFountain went over the next steps.

Public Participation – None

Next Meeting – September 6, 2017

Adjournment

Supervisor LaFountain moved to adjourn the meeting at 7:35 PM.

Amy Steklof, RMC/CMC
Town Clerk
Facts about tobacco use:
1. Tobacco is the #1 preventable cause of death and disease in the country, killing more people than alcohol, AIDS, car accidents, illegal drugs, murders, and suicides combined.
2. Annually in New York State, 3,000 people die from secondhand smoke exposure to tobacco.
3. An estimated 8,000 youth under 18 this year will become new daily smokers.
4. An estimated 874,000 NYS youth alive today are projected to become smokers with 390,000 of those dying prematurely from smoking.
5. The average age for a new smoker is 13.

Tobacco-Free Grounds and Outdoors:
Tobacco-free grounds and outdoor policies provide numerous benefits to the public:
• They reduce exposure to secondhand smoke.
• They reduce a person’s risk of developing serious and life-threatening disease (heart disease, cancer, COPD, asthma, respiratory problems, and of dying prematurely).
• They insure a healthy environment for sports, recreation, and outdoor activities.
• They provide clean and safe breathing.
• They limit cigarette butt litter, waste and pollution.
• They help to demoralize tobacco use which helps reduce youth smoking initiation and helps current tobacco users quit.

A 2013 Monroe County Community Tobacco Assessment Survey revealed that 78% of respondents wished to restrict smoking in some capacity at public parks or outdoor recreational areas (34% said smoking should not be allowed at all).

Secondhand smoke/statistics:
• The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency has classified secondhand smoke a Class A carcinogen. There is no safe level of secondhand smoke as it contains over 7,000 chemicals with over 70 cancer-causing agents.
• Exposure to secondhand smoke is unhealthy, growing evidence found that levels secondhand smoke outdoors can reach concentrations found in indoor areas, causing serious and life-threatening issues.
• Brief exposure can cause immediate health impacts; infants, youth, elderly, and those with pre-existing conditions are more susceptible to these effects.
• It causes eye, nose, and throat irritation, coughing, cardiovascular and respiratory disease, cancer, stroke, heart disease, and premature death.
• Secondhand smoke increases nonsmokers’ risk of developing heart disease and lung cancer by 20-30%.
• Youth are more susceptible to secondhand smoke impacts as their lungs, organs, and developing brain experience a more damaging result.
• Today, half of all children between age 3 and 18 years in this country are exposed to cigarette smoke regularly; these children experience more ear infections, respiratory infections, asthma attacks, and miss more days of school.
Cigarette Butt Litter:
- Cigarette butts remain the most littered item in the U.S. with over 175 million pounds littered every year.
- 65% of all cigarette butts are littered.
- Cigarette filters are not biodegradable, posing a serious litter and toxic waste disposal problem.
- Community quality of life suffers, property values decrease, and potential ingestion of toxic materials pose threats to children/infants and animals.
- They decrease the appeal of public spaces, they are unattractive, and they create higher maintenance costs to maintain clean greenspace, public outdoor areas, and waterways.
- They also pose serious fire hazard risks to these community spaces.

Facts on reducing social acceptability:
- US Surgeon General acknowledges that children are more likely to use tobacco if they see adults and other peers using these products around them; observing tobacco use at local parks and playgrounds triggers adolescents to view this as socially acceptable and normalized behavior.
- Adolescents are particularly susceptible to the "rewarding" effect of nicotine, in which nicotine addiction can cause three out of four young smokers to continue smoking into adulthood.
- With almost 90% of adult smokers starting by the age of 18, it is imperative to encourage tobacco-free laws and norms while also promoting the social acceptability of tobacco-free environments for the sustainability of community health and wellness.

Municipality grounds/employer:
- There are numerous benefits to implementing a municipality tobacco-free grounds policy.
- Tobacco-related health care costs New Yorkers $10.4 billion dollars.
- NYS lost productivity costs $6 billion annually, smokers are 2x less productive at work.
- Businesses lose approximately $3,734 each year for every employee who smokes. Smokers’ average almost 3 more missed days per year than non-smokers.
- Various studies and surveys have documented an almost 30% decline in smoking rates amongst adults when a TFO policy is implemented at a place of employment and that most smokers do want to quit and that these employer policies help decrease their tobacco product use.

Impacts on Penfield:
- There are over 515 municipalities around New York State that have passed regulations restricting tobacco use in outdoor recreational areas. The Town of Ogden, Rush, Henrietta, Wheatland, and Village of Brockport and Scottsville, and the City of Rochester have all gone 100% tobacco free in their parks. Recently the City of Buffalo did as well.
- The Town of Penfield manages and maintains over 10 parks, over 15 miles of trails, recreational spaces, lodges, and greenspace. To keep these parks safe and clean it is only a natural fit to consider the importance of these policies to mirror the progress other county towns have made.
- A policy would fit the health culture of the town,
  - it would set a precedent for all students educated in the town
  - it would protect the environment from cigarette litter
  - it would prevent dangerous secondhand smoke exposure with better access to safe breathing air
  - it would create safer community and quality of life for all residents and visitors
- Our youth deserve to play and enjoy summer recreation in a safe environment, free from asthma triggers, secondhand smoke drift, and cigarette butt litter scattered in areas they play.
E-cigarettes:

- Additionally, e-cig usage by NYS high schoolers has doubled in the past two years
- The use of e-cigs is highly correlated with dual usage of other tobacco products
- A recent Youth Risk Behavior Survey Report in Monroe County revealed the roughly 24% of youth currently smoke either cigarettes, cigars, and/or use e-cigarettes and the most shocking is 51% of currently youth smokers attempted to quit in the past month.
- Including e-cigarettes in tobacco-free policies helps prevent youth use in public spaces and lowers the social acceptability of these products, especially after the recent passing of Governor Cuomo’s e-cig ban on all NYS private and public school grounds

In conclusion, the Town of Penfield holds strong values for community safety, cleanliness, wellness, and recreation for all.

- To keep public health at the forefront of the community, it is imperative to provide policies that support and enhance a health-conscious and sustainable community. If a community is not establishing tobacco-free norms then they are upholding pro-tobacco acceptance, primarily in spaces used to promote healthy and active lifestyles.
- It will protect employees, visitors, families, youth, pets, and wildlife
- And it will prevent secondhand smoke dangers, environmental pollution, and limit youth exposure to these products
