

June Programs

Adult Programs

Digital Literacy

Tuesdays | 10 AM-1 PM

Saturdays | 10:30 AM-12:30 PM

You may register for a one-hour appointment by contacting the Information Desk. Trained volunteers from Literacy Rochester are available to assist with computer skills like operating devices, the internet, and using software.

Adult Craft: Magnetic Vase

6/1 | 10:30 AM-Noon

Registration is full but a waiting list is available. Upcycle glass jars and colorful paper napkins into a beautiful vessel that can house a flower cutting, a small succulent, or an air plant. This can spice up the side of your fridge or magnetic dry erase board! (Rescheduled from May 11 – please note change of time)

Sweet Bites: A Taste of Poetry

6/4 | 12:00-1:00 PM

Registration is open. Taste the sweetness of poetry! Copies of the poems will be available at the Circulation Desk beginning the afternoon of May 31.

Health Care Navigator Session

6/4 | 4:30-7:00 PM

Call (585) 613-7662 to register and find out what to bring. Get help from a certified counselor to enroll in the NY State of Health Marketplace.

Garden-Worthy Native Plants

6/6 | 6:00-7:30 PM

Registration is open. Megan Meyer of Healthy Yards Monroe County and Color Penfield Green will discuss native plants, including how to start a native pollinator garden and the best places to purchase native plants.

Adult Programs

Unique Museums of Paris

6/9 | 2:00-3:30 PM

Registration is open. An afternoon in Paris often includes a day at the Louvre and a morning or afternoon at the D'Orsay and L'Orangerie museums. Join Christine Simons on this Parisian adventure in spring of 2023 where you will experience some of the unique museums of the City of Light including the Paris Resistance Museum, the modern Pompidou Museum, the Christian Dior Museum, the Marmottan Museum, home to Monet's works, and Picasso's art gallery in the Marais district of Paris.

Juneteenth Celebration

6/12 | 7:00-8:00 PM

Registration is open. Eunice White and Shirley Strothers, members of the Blackstorytelling League of Rochester, will tell the story of Juneteenth with an historical re-enactment of early Juneteenth celebrants, followed by discussion of celebrations through the years and the opportunity for questions from the audience.

Playing with Words: The Pleasure of Poem-Making

6/13 | 2:30-4:30 PM

Registration is open.

"Sometimes, at the end of a poem, the world is larger,
And the speaker is less alone."

-Marvin Bell, from
A Marvin Bell Reader

A workshop for would-be poets as well as those looking for new ways to get their writing going.

Adult Programs

No credentials needed! We'll read some poems as springboards for inspiration and try out some playful "exercises" to stir up the poems inside us.

Understanding Antisemitism: An Online Book Discussion Series (virtual)

6/18 | 7:00-8:00 PM

Registration is open. Join the Monroe County Library System and Rochester Against Antisemitism for a series of online book discussions about antisemitism and Israel. This month's book is Letters to My Palestinian Neighbor by Yossi Klein Halevi; discussion facilitated by Julianne Miller.

Swing Dance

6/24 | 6:30-8:00 PM

Registration is open. Come experience the joy of swing dancing! Dance improves muscular strength and endurance, coordination, balance, flexibility, and confidence and is also a great way to make new friends. Your instructors Alla Levi and Marty Steinhauer have 20+ years of dance experience and are eager to share with you their love of dance. Please wear smooth-soled shoes. No partner necessary.
